TRAINING NEWS:

Public Access Training Classes to Begin January 17th, 2012

NBTv95 will be offering free television production training classes for new producers. In order to participate in the training, you must be a New Bedford resident (or affiliated with a New Bedford organization) and attend the first class held on Tuesday, January 17th at 6:30pm.

Classes will continue the following three Tuesdays, January 24th, Jan 31st and February 2nd

The class will cover the basics of Television Studio Production, digital editing, and portable digital cameras. If you, or anyone you know, are interested in this great opportunity, please call Public Access Director Tom Sexton at 508-979-1744.

You must attend on January 17th in order to take the class.

There is a limit of 12 people per class it's on a first come first served basis. Even if you are 24th on the list don't be too worried, many times people do not make it to the first orientation class. If there is a large enough demand, a second class can be arranged.

If you have any questions about the class, please call Tom Sexton at 508-979-1744.
