

CURRENT RENEWABLE ENERGY COMPANIES & PROJECTS IN NEW BEDFORD BUSINESS PARK & ENERGY PARK

A. NEW BEDFORD BUSINESS PARK

1. Commonwealth Energy generates 3.5 MW's of electricity from Landfill Gas.
2. Konarka Technologies purchased 250,000 square foot Former Polaroid Plant to manufacture solar photovoltaic products.
3. Maximum makes instruments for large commercial windmills.
4. Gold Peak Industries from Hong Kong just leased 65,000 square foot plant to make emissions-free and noiseless electric motor scooters under the Vectrix Brand.
5. Titleist completed 2 MW co-gen plant for Ball Plant 2 and various process control and lighting projects to reduce their electricity, cooling and heating costs.
6. Lighthouse Masonry Group installed solar panels on its roof.
7. Laidlaw Energy Group planning 7.5 MW green and dead wood chips-to-electricity project to supply Konarka and others in the Former Polaroid Campus with their electricity and steam requirements.
8. Major Out-Of-State Utility Company planning 9 acre solar panel farm project to supply Titleist and Zapp with some of their electricity requirements.
9. Konarka Technologies is planning to place solar panels on its roof.
10. Planning Three Seminars for Park Companies on ways to reduce their electricity, heating and cooling requirements and costs.

B. ENERGY PARK IN NORTH DARTMOUTH

1. Fortune 500 Company planning 52 acre solar panel farm.
2. Established Company planning a food, fish and wood waste to compost project.