The New Bedford Police Department is currently searching for a MISSING New Bedford Elementary School teacher. Sheryl Grace Duncan (38) of New Bedford was last seen Monday driving her 2007 Chrysler Pacifica, navy blue in color, bearing Massachusetts registration 227VRD. Sheryl Grace Duncan is a wife and mother of two young children and is a well-known New Bedford Elementary School teacher and left without warning or provocation. The New Bedford Police Department urges anyone who has seen Sheryl Grace Duncan, has had any contact with her or knows where she has been or may be headed to call 911. She is reported as an actively missing person and her information has been entered into the national law enforcement database as being WANTED as a MISSING PERSON.

Several recent photographs of Sheryl Grace Duncan have been attached as has a picture of the vehicle she was last seen driving. It is unknown where Sheryl Grace Duncan could have gone, however she has ties that span throughout New England, into Maryland and as far as San Antonio, Texas. As such, we respectfully request that as many media outlets as possible cover this story and show the photographs to their respective viewing audience
