Fair Housing and Civil Rights Legal Training

This is a training opportunity for legal and other professionals and law students to learn about fair housing and civil rights laws. The training will cover basics, as well as the Supreme Court's recent decision on disparate impact and new fair housing rules applicable to entities receiving federal funds.

Attendees will learn:

- Fair Housing and Civil Rights Basics
- Case Process at the MA Commission Against Discrimination
- Attorney General's Role in Enforcing Civil Rights Laws
- Remedies in Fair Housing cases
- Disparate Impact and the Implications of Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs v. The Inclusive Communities Project, Inc.
- HUD's new rule on Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing and the Responsibilities of Entities Receiving Federal Funds

Speakers

- Genevieve C. Nadeau, Deputy Chief, Civil Rights Division, Office of the Attorney General
- Caitlin A. Sheehan, Commission Counsel, Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination
- Kristina da Fonseca, Executive Director, SouthCoast Fair Housing, Inc.
