

eliminating racism
empowering women
ywca

Advocacy for Families Coping with Alcohol Addiction

How to be an effective Advocate on the issues important to you sponsored by New Bedford Health Department, presented by the YWCA Southeastern MA

Join us on

Friday, June 11, 2010

8:30 AM – 12:30 PM

MDPH-Southeast Regional Health Office

1736 Purchase Street, New Bedford, MA

508-984-0600

(light refreshments)

This interactive workshop will include:

Understanding Beacon Hill and Congress for you and the people you serve

Advocating for issues important to you

Trends and best practices in MA and nationally on alcohol and substance abuse

Registration is limited to 30 people. Please register by June 8th.

To register:

Send an email to Pam Pollock at pampol@aol.com or call 508-965-6927.

Founded in 1911, the YWCA Southeastern Massachusetts is dedicated to eliminating racism, empowering women and promoting peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all. The YWCA Southeastern Massachusetts serves an area that stretches from the Rhode Island state line east to Provincetown, south to the Islands and north to Attleboro, Brockton and Plymouth. The YWCA helps women, girls and their families attain self-sufficiency by providing services to support the vast needs of people from numerous populations.