New Bedford Public Library Presents

Meet the Author...

Laura Vaughan

Laura Vaughan has been a teacher for 20 years and a writer for a lot longer. She has taught both English and History in the Boston and Fall River public school systems, and is the author and illustrator of the children's book Andy Ant, What Could Possibly Be On The Other Side To See. Over the years, she has written for a daily newspaper (the Winchester Daily Chronicle), editor of an adventure magazine, written and had published short stories in various publications, and has worked for the Associated Press.

She is presently working on a creative non-fiction novel about a Guatemalan orphanage, along with a fiction novel about an intelligent rat that runs a dump. She is also the founder of New Bedford Writer Studios—an organization offering writing workshops in Poetry, Fiction, Creative Non-Fiction, Short Story, and Memoir Writing in the New Bedford area.

Join us in welcoming Laura Vaughan on Tuesday, May 24, 2016 from 7:00-8:00PM at the New Bedford Main Library Meeting Room.

The Meet the Author series is held on the fourth Tuesday of every month and is sponsored by the Friends of the New Bedford Public Library. Light refreshments will be served and books will be available for purchase.
