Friends of the New Bedford Free Public Library

The New Bedford Free Public Library gets by with a little help from our friends . . . actually, we get by with a lot of help from our friends! Our Friends of the Library group has given us so much over the years to fund children’s and adult’s programming, provide new furniture, and contribute funding for new and emerging technology. The week of October 20-26th is National Friends of Libraries Week where we have the two-fold opportunity to celebrate our friends and encourage members of our community to become a friend of the library! Visit friendsnbfpl.org to become a member or visit your local library to fill out the form!
