Friends of the Library Gala: THE EVENT

The Library has too many pieces of art to show all the time. And some pieces are so fragile that it would be unwise to exhibit them frequently.

But on Friday, May 31st, starting at 6 p.m., many of these pieces will be on display for the Friends of the Library fund-raising gala, which they are rightfully calling THE EVENT. Janice Hodson, the Library Art Curator, has chosen approximately 50 seldom-seen pieces to exhibit that night.

To call it a once-in-a-lifetime event might be an exaggeration, but it is certainly a once-in-a-generation opportunity. Among the pieces that will be shown are the Saint-Gaudens medallion of Robert Louis Stevenson; the Audubon Quadrupeds of North America; and an 18th-Century Japanese Whaling Scroll.

Tickets are $45 for members of the Friends and $50 for non-members. Hors d’oeuvres will be served and an open wine bar will be available. The ceremonial Pleasant Street door will be open for those would like the chance to enter the building the way generations past did.

(For those who cannot make it up the stairs, the handicapped-accessible William Street door will also be open.)

The Friends of the Library support programming for children and teens, help preserve the art collection, and provide author talks to the community – along with other financial help for the Library.

Please join the Friends for this delightful evening.

Howland-Green Teen Room Grand Opening

As an example of the Friends financial assistance, the Teen Room at the Howland-Green Branch will officially open Saturday, May 18th at 2 p.m. with a brief ceremony. The public is invited.

Much of the cost of the Teen Room was paid for by the Friends. The Room also received a generous donation from the South End Business Association.
