Summary of Incident Report #1

The Police Department Incident Report states that Officers, who were working on their assigned shift, were driving east bound on Sawyer Street in the area of Freddie’s Cafe, observed a group of people at the entrance of the bar yelling and they appeared to be getting ready to fight.

Upon requesting additional units to help clear the patrons from the bar and parking lot, the Officers then made their way through the crowd while also advising them that it was time to leave; as they did, they noticed several known Latin King Members who were involved in a physical altercation with unknown parties prior to their arrival.

While clearing out the crowd, the Officers noticed a few people who seemed to be afraid to leave and refused to speak to them. The Officers also felt the bar was over capacity when they arrived.

Summary of Incident Report #2

The Police Department Incident Report states that Officers, who were working on their assigned shift, were traveling south on Belleville Avenue approaching Holly Street when they observed a large crowd outside of Freddie's Café located at 175 Sawyer St, which has been the site of numerous disturbances of late. Upon arrival, it was apparent that some kind of commotion was going on, so the Officers requested extra officers for assistance; as they exited their cruisers they observed two females assisting a male who couldn't walk on his own, and was obviously beaten as he had blood on his face and lumps on his forehead; and on the side of his right eye. The Officers also observed another male, who obviously had been drinking, who also had blood all over his face; as well as having no shoes on and his belt was undone.

The Security Guard stated that the fight started by the exit door and spilled out into the parking lot. The Security guard stated to the Officers, that once they leave the bar's exit door...he is not responsible for what happens.

The Officers then spoke to the bartender who stated that the fight broke out inside the bar and that she couldn't tell what was going on because tables were being moved and due to the fact that there were so many people in the bar. The Officers then spoke to two other patrons who indicated the same story. The three statements contradicted the statement made by the Security Guard.

The Officers noted in their report that the incidents that do occur are discovered by officers when they drive; adding that the business does not call police when they have a problem and that the owner/ manager of the establishment has never co-operated with police when they discover a problem at this establishment.

Date and time of alleged violations: Saturday, January 26, 2019 @ approximately 1:25 a.m.

The officers on site counted 62 patrons leaving the establishment not including staff; noting that when they looked inside prior to closing, they could see that the place was packed dangerously tight with people. Once all the patrons were out, they proceeded inside to check the certificate of occupancy and met with the owner, who indicated that the capacity of the establishment was 78. Upon checking the CO, they noted that the capacity was 45/33. The owner stated that the "other side" was closed, adding that the other side is a restaurant. Both officers felt that the establishment was overcrowded, contrary to the certificate.

Summary of Incident Report

The Police Department Incident Report states that an Officer, while on a routine patrol traveling north on Dartmouth Street in the vicinity of Rivet Street, observed a large disturbance forming at the entrance to The Bar located at 266 Dartmouth Street. Upon arrival, the Officer observed 10 people yelling at each other and being pulled apart. After radioing communications, the Officer activated the Blue lights on his cruiser and exited his cruiser; as the Officer approached the group, it began to separate in half and the security staff was yelling for everyone to get against the wall and they were complying, however, the two groups were yelling back and forth.

The Officer was told by a female who stated that the altercation was started by The Bar staff, adding that the bartender threw a drink at them, referring to their group of friends, and assaulted them.

As the Officer was talking to the first female, he observed a second female who was being held back by several persons, while yelling back at the bar staff; moments later, she pushed away from her friends and lunged towards the staff at the entrance to the bar in what he observed to be an attempt to assault the staff, at which time, he made a decision to place her into custody.

The Officer then interviewed the bartender who stated that she asked one of the males to close out his tab, at which time she received an attitude from the group. She replied that the attitude was unnecessary and was told by one of the females that they were not leaving until they finished their drinks, at which time she took away the drink. The bartender stated that caused the female to come into the serving area behind the bar for what she believed was to fight her; adding that the girls in the group threw glasses at her and at the stage with one hitting a customer, although no victim came forward or has been identified.

The Officer then escorted the male back into the bar to close out his tab, at which time the Officer asked him his date birth to which he responded that his date of birth was 10/26/97. Upon running the male's name through the system, it was discovered that the male's date of birth was 10/26/98, which made him 20 years of age and not of legal drinking age.

Along with the first female, a second was also placed into custody and charged with disorderly conduct as well.
